

My little sister is a VILLAIN

She may have curly hair but the emotion's inside her are beyond compare

She may look like a cuddly bear if you look close in her eyes
You will stop and stare

You will see war, fire and death
She is absolutely mischievous
Not to mention her stinky breath

She may look little and cute and sweet but she is murderous and can watch you when you sleep

You may think I am lucky to live with her but I must stay on my toes She really likes to stir

I should stop typing or I'll be in strife Even as I read this With her listening I risk my life
